Member Spotlight on Jane

Jane says, "I started painting when I was very young. I remember sitting on my grandmother's lap and painting with her tri-chem paints.

I didn't take any classes until the 70's. I started with oils learning how to paint strawberries, lemons and chrysanthemums. However, my favorite medium now is acrylics.

I really enjoy Linda Sharp's designs but there are so many others that I enjoy. When I am not painting I like to garden, I also like to cut my own wood and being with my family.

I was pretty excited to work on the Rosemary West design (pictured at right). I wasn't able to take her class but Judy Gibson helped me along. She's a pretty good teacher. I want to be able to eventually do Rosemaling. I do enjoy Jo Sonja designs but am not quite there yet. I've tried to paint at least something every month and sometimes I get more than one thing accomplished.

I have really enjoyed learning from the other members of our chapter, zoom classes and conventions. It is always a good time when you can learn a new skill or technique."
