SILVER STATE ARTISTS

WHERE SOUTHERN NEVADANS GET TOGETHER TO SHARE THEIR LOVE OF ART

Silver State

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRESIDENT

Artists and Friends,

Well, we're halfway through the year and so far every class has been a tremendous success. The camaraderie of our group is amazing. At this turning point in the year there will be more exciting new methods coming to our classes. A big thank you to both Jewlene and Sandy for their steampunk class! The next big gathering will be the summer picnic, and the class taught by Judy Gibson.

Looking to the future of Silver State Artists, we will be challenging our talents with many new ideas on the concepts of, "what is art?" We all have various thoughts on art and it's meaning that will be a part of free discussions at our classes. Exciting things are coming, so be prepared to expand your ideas of art.

On a serious note, I encourage all the committees to come together to make this a successful, joyous place to create. We are powerful in our expressions, no fear, no criticism, no judgment. What others see as art may not be your taste, but the thought, effort and time to create it must be appreciated and shared. We are truly blessed to have our time together. Enjoy every moment and support each other. One of the things I observed as a new member was the welcoming generosity of all the ladies in our group! You shared, you helped, you encouraged. It has been my profound pleasure to be included in this group of talented artists. Keep creating, keep growing and come together and share in the friendship, encourage your friends to come and join our merry group. Art comes in many forms and we will keep expanding our minds and ideas as a group of strong, caring women.

Thank you all for making Silver State Artists the best group to celebrate your many talents, you are loved.

Kindest regards,
Mary Ann
